Oncology Project Checklist

v.2.0

☐ I searched Google to identify all synonyms for the disease

☐ I checked the spreadsheet and made sure that no other microchaptered page with a synonym to my topic has already been created

☐ I created redirects to the disease page I am working on (including all the synonyms I identified)

☐ I removed all abbreviations of the disease name from the microchapters content, added them to the Synonyms and Keywords, and made sure they redirect to the disease page

☐ I added authors to pages with content and kept all existing authors who previously contributed to the page as first associate editor-in-chief co-authors

☐ I organized all content one sentence at a time into the correct microchapters

☐ I added content that was missing from WikiDoc that was on WikiPatient

☐ I added content that was missing from WikiDoc that was on the Disease Database

☐ I added relevant content from the National Library of Medicine for patient pages at https://www.nlm.nih.gov/medlineplus/cancer.html

☐ I added relevant content from http://www.cancer.gov/types using both the healthcare professional version and the patient version

☐ I added relevant content from seer.cancer.gov

☐ I added any new content from Wikipedia

☐ I checked that all Wikipedia code is not broken, including broken hyperlinks and references

☐ I did not add information from sources other than the ones previously mentioned except under the supervision of one of the deputy editors-in-chief

☐ I searched on www.youtube.com for video(s) that may improve the reader's understanding of the disease pathophysiology, and I fully watched the video(s) before embedding it on WikiDoc to make sure it does not contain commercial or personal information

☐ I created hyperlinks for medical terms that are not the page itself

☐ I deleted the Wikipedia table of content from the Home page

☐ I deleted the image on the Home page when it does not fully portray pathognomonic features of the disease

☐ I removed the category needs content or needs overview when appropriate

☐ I removed Please help WikiDoc by adding more content here. It's easy! Click here to learn about editing. from pages that have content

☐ I created an overview section and added overview content based on the templates provided by WikiDoc

☐ I made sure I included the staging of the disease if available

☐ I made sure I used lists, instead of text, while adding content to the microchapters

☐ I made sure I removed all periods from the lists

☐ I cited all relevant sources by including the following where applicable
  o Cancer.gov:
     <ref name="cancergov">National Cancer Institute. Physician Data Query Database 2015. http://www.cancer.gov/publications/pdq</ref>
  o Seer.cancer.gov:
     <ref name="seer">National Cancer Institute. Surveillance, Epidemiology, and End Results Program 2015. http://seer.cancer.gov</ref>

To the best of my knowledge, I, the undersigned, have made sure that there are no additional information to be added to the chapter and have incorporated all the above without committing any error, plagiarism, or fraud.
